

A diagram of a rectangular area with a dark gray background. A horizontal gray line with T-shaped ends at both ends spans the width of the rectangle. A vertical gray line with T-shaped ends at both ends spans the height of the rectangle. On the right side, there is a red L-shaped line forming the bottom and right borders of the rectangle. Text is placed within the rectangle: 'Width' and its measurements are on the right, 'Height' and its measurements are on the left, and a red warning is on the right side.
